COLUMBIA, ADAIR COUNTY, KENTUCKY, WEDNESDAY MAY 31, 1911.

NUMBER 30

Ina Ethel Hulse.

In the death of Miss Ina Ethel Hulse, the oldest child of Rev. and Mrs. T. L. Hulse, which occurred last Wednesday p. m. at 8 o'clock in the District, parsonage, Columbia has lost one of its most popular young ladies. She was born in Cumberland Co. May 4, 1889, joined the Methodist church at Gradyville when her father was pastor there, and when she was but 10 years old. She came to Columbia about four years ago, with her father when he was made P. E. of this district. She at once became identified with the church here and has been a very active and useful member. When taken sick, nine weeks ago she was an officer in the Epworth League, a teacher in the Sunday school, and the organist of the church, which position she has faithfully filled for two years.

After attending the L. W. T. S. here for some time she went to Russellville, Ky., and entered Logan Female College where she graduated two years ago with the B. S. degree.

At the time she was taken sick she was taking the Normal course and music at the L. W. T. S., preparatory to teach this fall.

Miss Ina was an accomplished, modest and beautiful christian character, and while her suffering was great she bore it gracefully and hopefully. She often expressed her appreciation to the many friends who were so kind and thoughtful of her in her last illness.

The funeral was conducted at the Methodist church here last Friday morning by her pastor of whom she was very fond, Rev. B. M. Currie, assisted by Revs. R. T. McConnell, of Greensburg, and J. R. Crawford this city.

A great congregation of sorrowing and sympathizing friends attended the funeral, and floral offerings were beautiful. The interment was in the Columbia cemetery. A beautiful christian has been taken away in the very prime of life. She will be greatly missed in church and society, but the influence of her beautiful life will abide with us.

The family has the deepest sympathy of the whole community.

Resolutions of Respect.

Whereas death has again invaded our ranks and taken from us one of our most faithful and beloved members and teachers, Miss Ina Ethel Hulse,

Therefore be it resolved, That the members of the Methodist Sunday School,

1st, That we heartily acknowledge the loss of a most efficient and faithful friend and member,

2nd, That, we hereby express our sincere belief that she was a pure, sweet and true christian character, prepared either to live here and do much good or to enter into the glory of her Lord.

3rd, That, we deeply sympathize with her loved ones in this hour of sorrow, and really weep with them on account of our loss,

4th, That, we strive more diligently to be faithful in our work here, profiting by the example she set for us, treasuring up the sweet influence that abide with us from her life and strive to meet her at last in heaven,

5th, That, a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the Secretary's book, a copy be given to The Adair County News for publication, and another be sent to The Central Methodist Advocate.

Louisville, Ky., May 24 1911.

Dear Sir:
As my subscription to your paper has about expired, I inclose $1.00 for paper to be continued.

Your method of paying in advance is a good one and hope it will prove to be successful. There is nothing pleases me more than when my subscribers to the Louisville Times pay their subscription in advance.

I am one of the route agents to Louisville Times and of course I have all addition to read, but as soon as the Adair County News is received these papers are laid aside until this paper is read, for it gives me great pleasure to read it as I am formerly from Cane Valley.

Respectfully,
L. M. Smith,
524 S 3rd St.

Eld. Tobias Huffaker, who made an appointment to preach at Hebron the third Sunday in June, changes the date to the fourth Sunday. The change was made necessary on account of the Co-operation meeting which has been billed for Jamestown lasting over the third Sunday, and from the further fact that Eld. Huffaker has been selected to speak on several important topics at said co-operation meeting.

Death of Miss Clara Ann Wilson.

The people of Columbia were not surprised last Saturday afternoon when the intelligence of the death of Miss Clara A. Wilson spread over the city. It was known to the entire town that her condition was serious, and that she could not possibly recover. Notwithstanding her demise had been daily expected for a week, and that her relatives and friends were prepared to meet it, her passing brought great sorrow to many hearts.

She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Wilson and was born in Campbellsville September 19, 1889, making her 22 years old. Some years ago, while visiting a sister in Louisville, she made a profession of religion and united with the Baptist Church. Later her membership was removed to the Church at this place, in which she lived a very consistent life until God called her hence. While in health she was a regular attendant at Sunday school and it was not often that she missed a Church service.

The funeral services were held in the Baptist Church Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev. D. H. Howerton, assisted by Eld. Z. T. Williams, the building being packed with friends who were there to pay their respects to one they loved in life. After the discourse the remains were conveyed to the city cemetery, followed by several hundred people. The floral offerings were many and very beautiful.

The passing of this young woman leaves only two members of the immediate family, the mother and brother. The separation is a serious blow to them, but they should remember that the beloved daughter and dear sister is now free from pain and the troubles of this world, and that after awhile they will be made to understand. May the Giver of all that is good bind up their wounded and bleeding hearts, and sanctify this sad death to their good is the wish of The Adair County News.

Obtaining money and property by false pretense	1

"Man's Duty to Man," was the subject discussed last Sunday in the Christian church by Eld. Z. T. Williams, pastor. This subject was given him some time ago, and his disposal of it was commendable to himself, and well pleasing to all who heard it. He took as a text, the Golden Rule, and from it he showed man's duty to his fellow creatures. Briefly stating, it was a sermon that touched and stirred the noblest impulses that actuate individuals in their conduct with others. It should be preached throughout the land. Man's duty to man is closely related to man's duty to God, and Bro. Williams brought it out so clearly that the two seem to be one. This community needs more sermons like the one of last Sunday.

In the case of Oliver Willis, against the Board of Trustees of the town of Columbia, tried last week, Judge Carter decided the question at issue in favor of the defendant, Willis is the Marshal of the town of Columbia, and he sought to force the trustees to turn over to him for collection the tax list of the town, which had been given to Geo. R. Coffey, for collection. The trial Judge decided that the municipal board had the right to employ a person who was not the marshal to collect the tax.

Mr. A. D. Patten, sheriff, conveyed Dallas Dooley to the penitentiary last week. He is a white man and was convicted of chicken stealing and was sentenced for from one to five years. While in Frankfort sheriff Patten was permitted to see the last legal hanging in Kentucky, a negro being executed within the walls of the prison.

A difficulty occurred in the Fairplay country last Friday between Lee Mosley and Ed Burbridge. Burbridge was struck in the head with a double tree, utting a gash about three inches long.

Not Guilty.

Is the verdict in the case of the Commonwealth of Kentucky vs Meader & Son, charged with selling My Coca Cola bottles. — News Journal Campbellsville.

The case properly reported should read The Coca Cola Co. vs all Competitors. In this case Mr. Willock using the Commonwealth of Kentucky for his own use and benefit knowing full well he has no standing in a court of law or equity in this particular case, for he who asks equity must do equity.

Mr. Willock and myself put up a somewhat similar drink in taste, color and effect, both said to be the original Coca Cola formula carbonated and put up in 7 oz dark amber bottles of the same height and general size. In selling our goods to the different merchants in Taylor, Adair and adjoining counties the merchants in advertently get the bottles mixed, Mr. Willock getting my bottles and myself his. The different bottlers throughout the state recognizing this have established what we call an exchange system, that is to exchange our bottles when they become mixed.

I wrote to Mr. Willock on the 23rd day of March, 1910, that I had some of his bottles on hand and that he had some of mine, that I wished to exchange same, that I would haul his to him and bring mine back at no expense to him whatever. This proposition is still open to Mr. Willock. I wrote him a similar letter on June 1st, 1910. He has from that day to this only extended to me the charity of his silence. I also presented the situation to his Attorney, Judge Henry Beauchamp. Judge Beauchamp told me that he advised Mr. Willock to exchange bottles with me, Mr. Willock still refusing. He who asks equity must do equity. You must come into Court with clean hands. You are trying to crush my business by the aid of the Commonwealth of Kentucky. You are holding over my head the fear of the monster Trust of all, The Coca Cola Co. of Atlanta. You are trying to shut my wind off by getting all my bottles in your possession, knowing that I am a poor man and unable to buy more, but I have wind you never heard of.

Stand up like a man and take your "Dope." You can't stand competition; Don't get my old friend, Jim Saunders, to train the Guns of the Commonwealth, of the grand old State of Kentucky vs me again through Meader & Co., but let exchange bottles and be happy again for its certainly hard for any one man to get the full control of all the water and gas in this country, to monopolize, its too cheap. The News Journal thinks Mr. Willock has been imposed upon and that I am the man. Let him without sin cast the first bottle. W. Tanner Ottley. Columbia Ky., 27th 1911.

Dined on the Green.

A delightful gathering of the following young people last Wednesday afternoon on the lawn of Miss Vic Hughes. The refreshments consisted of every thing good to eat and the occasion will long be remembered by the following:

Misses Myrtle Myers, Edna Lewis, Nell Cox, Mary Miller, Mary Triplett, Alice and Ella Walker, Carrie Walker, May Stuits, Madge Rosenfield, Mabel Jasper, Vic Hughes, Ruth Summers, Mary Cartwright, Lura Smith, Mabel Atkins, Mesdames John Lee Walker, Geo. N. Rosenfield.

Grunting.

Though Parsons for the News are hunting, Should they report a Doctor grunting,

For it sets said Doctor moaning,
To hear the dear old Parson groaning.
With grunts and groans they'll both pursue you,
Always limping on the leg next to you,
They have the groaning grunts so badly,
Mienself and mine good Parson, Hadley.

J. T. Jones.

Mr. J. C. Strange went out spontooning last Saturday afternoon. He was quite successful, returning home with two catfish, one 21 inches long and one 18 inches.

Judge John D. Irvine Dead.

Last Monday morning relatives of this place were notified of the death of Judge John D. Irvine, which occurred at his late home, Russell Springs, Sunday night. He was about 68 years old and one of the best known men in Russell county. For many years he was a prominent merchant at Irvine's Store and several years after he retired from the mercantile business, he was elected and served the people of his county as county Judge.

He was an ardent Republican and took a great deal of interest in county politics. Mr. William Irvine, who also lives at Russell Springs, is a brother to the deceased, and Mr. J. D. Irvine, Jr., Creelsboro and Mrs. W. H. Wilson, this city, are his nephew and niece.

A great many friends attended the last sad rites.

It is our understanding that the deceased left a good estate.

Likes the Plan.

Meridian, Miss May 23, 1911.

Dear Sir:
You publishers are always very lenient toward ministers and I think your kindness is appreciated. I have been negligent in paying for the "News," and yet I could not do without it. You have been too easy on the folks, and I think your new plan a good one.

Find enclosed check for $3.00 and keep the News coming. Your friend, Lawrence Williams.

The first open air meeting for this summer was held by Rev. J. R. Crawford last Sunday afternoon, on the lawn of Mrs. Elizabeth Pile. The attendance very good. These outdoor meetings will be held each Sunday afternoon, on Rev. Crawford's days, throughout the summer unless rain interferes. The next meeting, the second Sunday in June, will be conducted at the same place as last Sunday—on the lawn of Mrs. Pile. The public general is invited to attend these services.

Mr. M. O. Stevenson, who lives three miles from Columbia, and who is one of the best farmers in all this section, has an extra fine field of wheat, the best, so his neighbors say, that has been grown in Adair county for many years. It will probably be ready to cut in ten days or two weeks. While upon the subject of wheat, it is reported that the crop is good throughout the county.

Mr. R. C. Blanford, who is an "all round" newspaper man, a good one, has accepted a position on The Taylor County Enquirer. "Bob," as he is familiarly called, received his first instructions in the art of printing in this town—working under Albin Nell, who published The Columbia Herald. That was a good many years ago, and since that time "Bob" has been connected with several different papers, invariably giving perfect satisfaction. His services will evidently be valuable to The Enquirer.

By way of supplementing the subject of Bro. Williams sermon last Sunday morning, which I have heard commended very favorably, I shall speak next Sunday on "Man's Duty to God." In the morning, as relates to our church membership, in the evening as relates to all people whether believers or unbelievers. D. H. Howerton.

Remember there will be a Ceme'ry Association Meeting June 3rd, 1911, at 4 o'clock at Miss Hindman's office. Please every body come prepared to pay their dues. 50c per year, as we will need money for further work in cemetery.

I will be in Columbia Wednesday, May 31, for the purpose of buying mules 15 to 16 hands high—4 to 8 years old. I also want to buy a few well broke driving and riding horses.

Al W. Pedigo.

For Cash Only.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday, 3 cans Tomatoes, 25c; 3 cans Kraut, 25c; 1 can Salmon, 12c; 1 can Chipped Beef, 10c.

Ballard & Miller.

Beginning Sunday, July the 2nd, 1911, I shall deliver a series of sermons each Sunday evening as follows:

July 2—An Address to Young Men.
July 16—A Message to Young Women.
Aug. 6—Love, Courtship and Marriage in the Light of Scripture.
Aug. 20—A Scriptural View of the Marriage Relation.

D. H. Howerton,
Pastor Columbia Baptist Church.

Rev. B. M. Currie will preach next Sunday afternoon at Disappointment School house.

A Surprise Dinner.

Mrs. Ella Cave, of Cane Valley, was 71 years old the 17th of this month, and her relatives and friends gave her a surprise dinner, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Farris, where she now lives. It was a magnificent affair and highly appreciated by the old lady and enjoyed by all present. The following persons made up the dinner party: Wm Biggs and wife; F. I. Ingram and wife; Sam Cofer and wife; J. B. Russell and wife; Ed Eubank and wife; R. H. Cofer, Mrs. Elizabeth Farris and daughter, Miss Annie, Mrs. Henry Farris, Mrs. Perry Sullivan, Mrs. Tom Bridgewater, Mrs. Fannie Obanion, Mrs. Susie Page, Mrs. Will Feese, Misses Irene, Sallie, Mamie Davis; Mollie and Ruth Morris, Annie and Zora Feese, Edna Morris, Edna Norene Cofer, Mrs. Chas. Morris and son, Robert, and Mr. Julian Bridgewater.

Every body who can conveniently leave home, should attend the picnic and decoration exercises at the monument, near Green River Bridge, next Saturday. An interesting program has been arranged to spend the day in an appropriate manner. Do not forget a well-filled basket of provisions.

Mr. Zach Samuel, who returned from New Mexico, last week, states that the Adair County people who have settled in and about Elida are getting along very nicely. He thinks that part of New Mexico will eventually be a good country.

In the suit of Frank Burton against Allen McGaha et al to recover one thousand dollars for missawed lumber, the jury rendered the following verdict: Judgment for $100 in favor of Burton, and $138 for McGaha, balance due on saw bill.

WANTED.—Will be at Green River Bridge June 3, to buy good horses and mules, also some extra suckling mule colts. Mackin & Phillips.

Mrs. Wm. Taylor, after a long illness, died in this place Monday night, a victim of consumption.

The first home grown peas were on the market last Thursday from the garden of Mrs. H. N. Miller.

Bring your horses and mules to town Wednesday if you wish to sell. Pedigo will be here.

Al W. Pedigo will be in Columbia, Wednesday, May 31, to buy horses and mules.
